

SimUnity.Dashboard is your One-Stop-Information System – feel the heartbeat of your company. See changes, news and trends – just when it happens – in real-time!

SimUnity.Dashboard concentrates and emphasizes all necessary information in one screen and is designed to take advantage of the strength of visual perception and cognition. The visualisation of the performance indicators helps your organization to define and measure workflows towards your company goals.

SimUnity.Dashboard is customizable to your personal information needs – just select the required data source and drop it to your dashboard. That's it – so easy!

SimUnity.Dashboard also provides advanced customizable reporting and analysis.
